

Fall 2018 Newsletter

9/11 Procession: On September 11, 2018 the Flag Day Association held its event to honor the lives that were lost on September 11, 2001 including those of First Responders. Bagpipers, color guards, and PFD and City dignitaries joined in the march which began at Fireman's Hall Museum and concluded with a ceremony at the Betsy Ross House.

Firefighter of the Year: The Firefighter of the Year award ceremony will be held on Tuesday October 9th at 1pm. All are welcome!

Family Days: Fireman's Hall Museum will once more join forces with Elfreth's Alley this fall on Saturday October 13th and November 3rd, to host Family Days. Come join us on these Saturday mornings!

SPAAMFA: The Fireman's Hall Museum team was out in force at the SPAAMFA National Convention in Cherry Hill, NJ. Harry Magee and Jack Oswald are shown manning the table selling our latest publication: From Horses to Horsepower by PFD historian and Fireman's hall Museum board member, Jack Wright.

From Horses to Horsepower: On Friday September 7th, a book signing and "Meet the Author" event was held for Jack Wright's new book From Horses to Horsepower. Copies of the new book are still available for purchase at Fireman's Hall Museum.
